Letter From President Hyland

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on completing your degree from American College of Education! We know you worked hard to get here, fitting countless hours of reading, writing and studying into your already busy lives. Time and again, you have impressed us with your grit, passion and commitment to expanding your mind and skills. We could not be more thrilled to have this opportunity to celebrate the culmination of your hard work with you.

Of course, we know that for many of you, this educational journey was not one you walked alone. Your family and friends, colleagues and mentors, were there to support you, push you, inspire you, guide you and give you the space you needed to achieve this success. To them, we'd like to say a generous thank you!

The world we live in today can be daunting and many of you work in challenging fields, where you face obstacles or uncertainty on a daily basis. We hope your time with us has not only equipped you with more knowledge and skills, but shown you how much resilience and strength you already possess. You have the power to effect change, be a pioneer, rally a team and advocate for a better path ahead. You have what it takes.

We are so excited for you to take your new degree and use it as a springboard toward future opportunities to serve, lead and achieve! Know that we will still be here to support you if you ever need it. We love our alumni community just as much as our students, and we're happy that you're now a part of it.

It was an honor to be part of your journey. I wish you much success in your career and future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Geordie Hyland

Board of Trustees

Thomas B. Evans

Board of Trustees, Chairperson

Co-founder, American College of Education

Thomas B. Evans is the founder and managing partner of Dallas-based Skyline Merchant Partners, LLC. His firm develops high-growth, high-impact businesses in the education industry. Evans co-founded American College of Education and is founder and executive chairman of ACE's parent company, ACE PBC LLC.

Before his current role, Evans was a partner with Best Associates, where he was responsible for raising capital, maintaining investor relationships, and evaluating and implementing investments in education enterprises.

Evans was a founding board member of Academic Partnerships and served on the Executive Advisory Board of the College of Business at Ohio University. He earned a Master of Business Administration from Ohio State University and an undergraduate degree in business from Ohio University.

Amelia Manning

Board of Trustees, Vice Chairperson

Amelia Manning served as a transformative leader for 20 years at Southern New Hampshire University (SNHU), where she built its online student support model, launched multiple student support functions, led the online business, built a positive work environment and, most recently, served as chief operating officer. During her tenure, SNHU achieved Great Colleges to Work For recognition for 12 consecutive years. She currently serves as vice chair for the Urban College of Boston.

Manning has implemented effective strategies that drive significant multibillion-dollar growth, and she is known for building and developing strong teams. Additionally, she has an impressive record of applying business strategies, exercising decisive leadership and leveraging technology to drive improvement in higher-education and online learning. She holds a B.A. in Psychology with a minor in gender studies from Saint Michael's College and an M.A. in Counseling Education from the University of New Hampshire. Additionally, she completed the Advanced Management Program with Harvard Business School.

Jeri Nowakowski, Ed.D.

Board of Trustees, Member

President Emeritus, American College of Education

Dr. Jeri Nowakowski is an educational consultant specializing in helping corporations and higher education institutions develop and facilitate transitions to an online environment. Nowakowski began her career as an educator, first in high school, then as an associate professor at Northern Illinois University. While executive director of the North Central Regional Educational Laboratory, she secured over $50 million in contracts and pioneered the use of technology to deliver and evaluate training and curriculum. Nowakowski later served as executive vice president of curriculum development and evaluation at Voyager Expanded Learning.

Nowakowski earned her bachelor's and master's from Arizona State University. She holds an Ed.D. in educational evaluation and research from Western Michigan University and was a post-doctoral fellow in the Department of Psychology at Northwestern University.

Lev Gonick

Board of Trustees, Member

Lev Gonick is an educator, technologist and smart city architect. He is the enterprise chief information officer at Arizona State University. Gonick also chairs the Sun Corridor Network, Arizona's Research and Education Network. In 2023, Gonick was recognized by the ORBIE Awards as Arizona's top large Enterprise CIO. In 2022, EdScoop named him one of the Top 50 Educational Technology influencers and leaders.

Before joining ASU in 2017, Gonick was co-founder and CEO of DigitalC, an award-winning non-profit organization enabling and celebrating innovation, collaboration and productivity through next generation broadband networks, big open data solutions and IoT for public benefit. From 2001-20213, he was CIO at Case Western Reserve University, where he and his colleagues were internationally recognized for technology innovations in community engagement, learning spaces and next generation network projects.

Barbara M. Jenkins, Ed.D.

Board of Trustees, Member

Superintendent Emerita, Orange County Public Schools

Dr. Barbara Jenkins has been dedicated to serving the needs of students for over 30 years. In 2012, she was named superintendent for Orange County Public Schools, the eighth largest district in the nation. She retired from OCPS in December 2022. Under Jenkins' leadership, the district won the prestigious Broad Prize for Urban Education. Most importantly, the district reached an unprecedented graduation rate of 97% during her tenure.

Jenkins received a presidential appointment as a director of the National Board of Education Sciences in 2017 and received the Baldrige Foundation Award for Leadership Excellence in 2022. She has served as chairperson of the board for the Council of Great City Schools, representing the nation's large urban districts. Deeply engaged in the community, she has also served on the boards of various organizations in central Florida. Jenkins is a graduate of the University of Central Florida.

Mary Elizabeth Mancini, RN, Ph.D., NE-BC (Retired), ANEF, FSSH, FAAN

Board of Trustees, Member

Dr. Beth Mancini is professor emeritus at the University of Texas at Arlington's College of Nursing and Health Innovation. Before retiring in 2019, Mancini served as the senior associate dean for education innovation and held the Baylor Health Care System Professorship for Healthcare Research. From 2004 to 2017, she served as chair for the undergraduate nursing programs.

Mancini received an Associate Degree in Nursing from the Community College of Rhode Island, a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Rhode Island College, a Master of Science in Nursing Administration from The University of Rhode Island and a Ph.D. in Public and Urban Affairs from the University of Texas at Arlington. She completed a Johnson & Johnson Wharton Nurse Executive Fellowship at the Wharton School of Business of the University of Pennsylvania and a National Association of Public Hospitals Management Fellowship program through the Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service at New York University.

Michael Moe

Board of Trustees, Member

Michael Moe is the founder and CEO of Global Silicon Valley (GSV) with over 30 years of experience in business. His work at GSV, a growth-focused investment platform, has led to investments in game-changing enterprises including those in the digital education sector.

Prior to GSV, Moe co-founded and served as the CEO of ThinkEquity

Partners, another growth-focused investment firm, and was the head of global growth research at Merrill Lynch.

Moe also co-founded the ASU+GSV Summit, which Forbes called “the Davos of Education.” He serves on the boards of the National Football Foundation, College Football Hall of Fame, Center for Education Reform, ClassDojo, Bookclub and Hi Solutions. He is a former advisor to Arizona State University and has authored three books. He holds a B.A. in Political Science and Economics from the University of Minnesota and is a chartered financial analyst.

In Memoriam

ACE proudly awards a posthumous honorary doctoral degree to Dr. Rod Paige in recognition of his distinguished career in public service and educational leadership, and for his enduring contributions to the advancement of education. We are honored to recognize and celebrate his life, leadership and lasting impact.

Paige served as United States Secretary of Education from 2001 to 2005, where he helped shape national education policy and served as a principal implementer of the No Child Left Behind Act, a landmark legislation focused on accountability, access and student achievement. Throughout his career, he demonstrated a steadfast commitment to expanding educational opportunity and supporting educators and institutional leaders across the country.

Prior to his federal service, Paige served as superintendent of the Houston Independent School District. He was also dean of the College of Education at Texas Southern University, reflecting a lifelong commitment to strengthening institutions that serve diverse communities and advancing opportunity through education.

Paige was a founding member of ACE's Board of Trustees in 2005, where he played a formative role in advancing our mission and guiding our growth from our earliest years. In 2022, he was granted Trustee Emeritus status, recognizing his longstanding service and enduring connection to the institution. Paige's legacy reflects ACE's core values: leadership, service, access and educational excellence. His contributions to education and public service continue to inspire future generations of educators and leader.

Featured Speakers

Sarah Wells
Keynote Speaker

Sarah Wells is an Olympic 400m hurdler and Pan American Silver Medalist. She knows the mindset, grit and amount of failure it takes to achieve the highest level. Wells doesn't just talk about overcoming adversity—she's hurdled it on the world's biggest stage. She even raced across deserts, mountains and international airports on "The Amazing Race," proving that grit, adaptability and a little bit of laughter go a long way.

Wells' philosophy centers on the idea that excellence isn't about perfection—it's about breaking free from limiting beliefs and constantly striving to outperform who you were yesterday. Renowned for her practical strategies, compelling storytelling and cellphone-charging energy, Wells empowers audiences to find their own excellence, transform challenges into opportunities for growth and achieve lasting success.

Geordie Hyland, MBA
President & Chief Executive Officer

Geordie Hyland is the president and chief executive officer of ACE and is passionate about strengthening human capital and communities. Hyland's education management experience spans higher ed, K-12, workforce development, allied health, clinical healthcare, continuing medical education, and remedial training in online, virtual reality, simulated, hybrid and in-person modalities.

Hyland is a former Googler and graduate of Harvard University, where he received a bachelor's degree in English and American literature as well as a master's in business administration from Harvard Business School. He also received a master's degree in industrial relations and personnel management from The London School of Economics and Political Science.

Jodi Feikema, Ph.D.
Chief Academic Officer & Provost

Dr. Jodi Feikema is the chief academic officer and provost for ACE. With over 15 years of higher education experience, she has served in a multitude of roles, as both faculty and administration, having extensive experience in prior learning assessment, program review and learning outcomes assessment, curriculum development, higher education accreditation and regulations, academic operations, learning products, faculty operations and training, and innovation in higher education.

Feikema earned her Ph.D. in Organizational Development and Leadership from University of the Rockies, where her research focused on the quality and effectiveness of degree programs at four-year universities. She has a master's degree in organizational leadership from St. Ambrose University and a bachelor's degree in political science from Iowa State University.

Scott Bailey, Ed.D.
Assistant Provost, Education Professions

Dr. Scott Bailey serves as assistant provost for education professions at ACE, managing all of the education-related programs across four departments. Having worked at ACE since 2018 in multiple positions, he's committed to ACE's mission of providing high-value, authentic and relevant training. Though he's been working in educator preparation since 2012, he began his career as a high school science teacher, and he served as both a middle and a high school principal and a curriculum director prior to moving into higher education. He's also worked as a state consultant supporting struggling schools and a state trainer for teacher and principal evaluation systems.

Luster Fowler, Ph.D.
Assistant Provost, Healthcare Professions

Dr. Luster Fowler is a dedicated leader with over 30 years of experience serving healthcare and higher education institutions. He currently serves as the assistant provost for healthcare professions at ACE. He remains committed to furthering the future of healthcare through education, serving as a member of the Indiana University Health Allied Health Advisory Board and as board chair for the Metropolitan Indianapolis Central Indiana Area Health Education Center. He places high priority on the processes of assessment and accreditation within higher education and has served in the role of an accreditation site visitor for the Commission on Accreditation for Respiratory Care, as well as an accreditation peer reviewer for the Higher Learning Commission.

Eric Klein, Ph.D.
Assistant Provost, Doctoral Research & Student Success

Dr. Eric Klein is the assistant provost of doctoral research and student success at ACE. He has over 15 years of experience in higher education and has held several leadership positions throughout his career. Klein earned his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Fairleigh Dickinson University and is a strong believer in continuing education, professional development and personal growth. Klein is a collaborative and supportive leader who brings a strong passion for strategic leadership, innovation and ensuring a high-quality learning environment that encompasses the entire academic experience.

Crystal Neumann, D.B.A.
Assistant Provost, Business Professions

Dr. Crystal Neumann has a doctorate in business administration, MBA, master's in adult education and holds a certificate on corporate sustainability. She previously worked in marketing and market research before she transitioned to higher education to work with and motivate adult learners. Neumann's work has been published in several journals, and she has presented at several national and international conferences. Her commitment and efforts toward making education affordable and accessible were recognized when she was selected as an honoree of Reverend Jesse L. Jackson's Rainbow PUSH Excel 2017, inducted into the Indiana Latino Leadership Circle in 2020, inducted into Hoosier Women Forward in 2022 and recipient of the Global Impression Award in 2023.

Special Recognitions

Dr. Christine Besa Vidal

2026 Alumni Achievement Award Recipient

Dr. Christine Besa Vidal is a special education resource teacher in the Kodiak Island Borough School District in Alaska, where she has been serving since 2023. She began her career in April 2006 as a special education teacher in the Philippines, developing a strong commitment to equitable, student-centered instruction. Her work is grounded in the belief that every child can succeed through intentional support, high expectations and collaborative practice. As a Filipino educator and mother of two, Vidal exemplifies servant leadership through her dedication to advocacy, education and global service.

Vidal earned her B.S. in Clinical Psychology (2004), M.A.Ed. in Early Childhood Education (2020), M.A.Ed. in Special Education (2021) and Ph.D. in Special Education Leadership (2023) in the Philippines, followed by a M.Ed. in Literacy from American College of Education in August 2025. Her experience at ACE strengthened her instructional leadership, deepened her expertise in structured literacy and data-driven practices, and enhanced her ability to design effective interventions and advocate for equitable outcomes for students with diverse learning needs.

Beyond Alaska, Vidal extends her impact internationally through her advocacy for strengthening special education practices in the Philippines, collaborating with educators, community members and other stakeholders to promote practical, evidence-based literacy and intervention strategies for students with disabilities in underserved communities. Her strength lies in training teachers, professionals, parents, community members and other stakeholders to effectively support and manage children with special needs, empowering them with the knowledge and skills to create more inclusive learning environments.

2026 Faculty Award for Excellence Recipient

Dr. Amalio Nieves serves as dissertation coordinator in doctoral leadership at ACE. Prior to joining ACE in 2021, his school district experiences spanned large urban school districts, including Chicago Public Schools, Broward County Public Schools, Boston Public Schools and Baltimore County Public Schools, serving in roles including teacher, curriculum specialist, director and executive director. Nieves was the first-ever assistant superintendent for life skills in the nation. He has extensive experience in strategy, leadership and professional development and has presented nationally on life skills and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support. In 2020, Nieves was named Maryland School Counseling Advocate of the Year.

Nieves' academic credentials include undergraduate work in elementary and secondary education (Concordia University, B.A.), graduate work in educational leadership (Nova Southeastern University, M.S.) and organizational leadership (Nova Southeastern University, Ed.D.). Nieves also attended Harvard University School of Business where he obtained the Executive Education Program for Leadership Development certificate. Most recently, Nieves attended Florida Atlantic University, where he obtained a certificate in human resource management.
