

Transfer your credits to ACE

Norman Regional Health System’s partnership with American College of Education means you can seamlessly transfer the professional development you’ve completed into one of our fully online bachelor’s-completion programs.

Based on your desired undergraduate degree pathway, you can earn up to three (3) credits when completing the following professional development with Norman Regional Hospital System.

Norman Regional Professional Development Courses		Applicable ACE Credits	Applicable ACE Programs	Applicable ACE Course
Leader in Me	Service Excellence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Working Across Cultures Developing & Maintaining a Professional Network The Complete Guide for New Professionals How to Recognize & Overcome Bias 	3 Credits	B.S. in Healthcare Administration	HLTH4313
	Operational Excellence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Problem-Solving Fundamentals A Guide to Effective Meetings A Guide to Workplace Professionalism Getting Started with Project Management 		B.S. in Business Administration and Leadership	LEAD4013
	Clinical Experience <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Doing the Right Thing: A Guide to Good Business Ethics Developing a Growth Mindset Receiving & Seeking Feedback Steven Johnson on Farsighted Decisions 		B.A. in Professional Studies	General elective undergraduate credits

*All courses in a bundle must be completed for credit to be applied to the specified program. In addition, documentation (a letter from a supervisor) must also be provided for completion of these five Level III assignment requirements specified in the Healer Development Guide: Notes and Development Ideas, SMART Goals, Exemplar Competency Document, Evidence of Daily Work Competency Document, and Community/Volunteer Service Verification Form for credit to be applied to the specified program.